

§ 8. A territorial road shall be laid out and established, leading from Boat Laid Hollow, on the Mississippi river, through the town of Fair Play, to the White Oak Springs; and that A. S. Gregory, G. W. Bruce, and J. M. Chandler be, and are hereby, appointed commissioners to lay out said road.

§ 9. The several boards of commissioners named in this act shall meet at such times and places as a majority of them shall agree, and proceed to perform the duties assigned them agreeably to the provisions of an act entitled "an act to provide for laying out and opening roads, approved January 11, 1840," and when located, shall be opened and worked as other roads are; and said commissioners are authorized to adopt the survey of any road which may have been already surveyed and laid out as a part of any of the roads authorized to be laid out by this act, if they shall think proper.

§ 10. None of the expenses of laying out the roads authorized by this act shall be paid from the territorial treasury, nor from the treasury of any of the counties through which any of the said roads may run.

§ 11. This law shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage.

APPROVED, April 17, 1843.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "an act to change the time of holding courts in certain counties of the second judicial district, and to provide for a change of venue in criminal cases," and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

§ 1. All writs, summons, process, indictments, recognizances, and other proceedings, in any of the courts, in the first section of the act of which this is amendatory mentioned, which shall have been instituted since the passage of said act, or may hereafter be instituted, shall be returnable at the term of such court to be begun and held next after the day of issuing of the same, any thing in the second section of said act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

§ 2. The seventy-first section of an act entitled "an act concerning costs and fees," is hereby repealed; and no costs shall be taxed in the supreme or district court without sufficient notice being given to the adverse party, or his attorney, of the time and place of such taxation, if said party or his attorney reside within the county in which the judgment was recovered.

Executions, may issue.

§ 3. In all cases in the supreme court where the judgment of the court below is affirmed, the supreme court may issue execution, directed to the sheriff of the proper county, returnable to the office of the clerk in ninety days from its date; and the clerk of the supreme court is authorized to issue executions, directed to the sheriff of the proper county, for all bills of cost in the supreme court, after they shall have been taxed according to law.

Take effect.

§ 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

April 17, 1843—This act was re-considered and passed by the unanimous vote (the ayes and noes having been taken) of all the members present—eleven being present.

JOHN P. SHELDON, Sec'y of Council.

Re-considered, and approved, April 17, 1843, by the house of representatives, by the unanimous vote of the house; twenty-five members having voted for, and none against the bill.

JOHN CATLIN, Chief Clerk.

AN ACT to provide for completing a new roof upon the capitol, and for other purposes.

Proposition.

Whereas, the board of commissioners of the county of Dane have proposed, in behalf of said county, to strip and shingle the roof upon the capitol under the direction of the superintendent of territorial property, or such other person as the legislature may designate, and to complete said work on or before the first day of October next, in consideration of being permitted to use suitable rooms in the capitol as offices for county purposes, therefore,

Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

Superintendent authorized to

§ 1. That the superintendent of territorial property be, and he is hereby authorized to contract with the board of commissioners of the county of Dane, upon such terms as shall be deemed best calculated to ensure the speedy and proper performance of the work.

Notice.

§ 2. That immediately after the conclusion of such contract with the superintendent, the board of county commissioners shall
