

same are hereby legalized, any slight or technical errors in the construction of law, or in the proceedings of said district, notwithstanding: Provided, said acts do not conflict with the ^{Proviso.} spirit and intent of the laws of this territory in relation to common schools, or with any other laws of this territory, or of the United States.

SEC. 2. The trustees of said school district number one are hereby authorized to levy a tax upon the taxable property in said district, according to the last assessment in said town, to the amount of three hundred dollars; and also to sell and dispose of their present school house, and apply the said three hundred dollars, and the proceeds of sale of said school house, in the erection and finishing a new school house in said district, in accordance with a vote of said district already taken to that effect: Provided, said school house, and the ^{Concerning a tax to be levied to build a school house.} property of said district, shall be subject to all laws in relation to school districts and district property now in force in this territory, or which may hereafter be enacted. ^{Proviso.}

WILLIAM SHEW,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

MASON C. DARLING,

President of the Council.

APPROVED, February 10, 1847.

HENRY DODGE.

AN ACT

To provide for the location of the county seat of Iowa county.

Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

SECTION 1. That at the election to be held on the first Tuesday in the month of April, A. D. 1847, all white male inhabitants of the county of Iowa, of twenty-one years and upwards, who shall have resided in the county thirty days immediately preceding said election, shall, at the time and place of holding said election, vote for the location of the county seat of Iowa county, by depositing a ballot with the judges of said election, upon which shall be written or printed the name of the place voted for as the county seat of said county.

When electors may vote for location of county seat.

Canvass of votes.

SEC. 2. The said ballots shall be canvassed and returned in the manner provided by law for canvassing and returning the votes for county officers; and such place in said county as shall be designated by a majority of all the votes so given, shall be and remain the county seat of Iowa county until otherwise provided by the people of said county.

Place having a majority to be the county seat.

Mineral Point to be the temporary county seat.

SEC. 3. The county seat of Iowa county shall be located in the town of Mineral Point until otherwise provided for according to the first and second sections of this act, and until suitable buildings shall be provided for county purposes; and it shall be the duty of the county commissioners of Iowa county to provide all necessary county buildings at Mineral Point for county purposes, until the county seat of said county shall be permanently located.

WILLIAM SHEW,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

MASON C. DARLING,

President of the Council.

APPROVED, February 10, 1847.

HENRY DODGE.