

year eighteen hundred and fifty-one, in each county of this State, a State tax of three mills on the dollar valuation, to be levied, collected and paid into the State treasury, as is provided by the revised statutes of this State.

SEC. 2. The supervisors of their respective counties are hereby required to levy the foregoing tax upon the taxable property in their several counties, according to the provisions of the revised statutes of this State for the assessment and collection of taxes.

SEC. 3. The Governor of this State is hereby authorised to borrow on the faith of the State, from the school fund, at such time or times as he shall deem expedient, such sum or sums of money, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of five thousand dollars, as in his opinion will be required for the erection of a State prison.

SEC. 4. The first monies realised from the tax herein provided for, shall be applied for the payment of the principal, and the interest of said loan shall be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 5. The Secretary of State is hereby required, immediately after the passage of this act, to cause the same to be published by the State printer, in a newspaper printed at the seat of government, and transmit to each clerk of the board of supervisors of the several counties of this State, a copy of the newspaper containing this act.

An Act to prohibit the appointment of County agents, and for other purposes

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The boards of supervisors of the several counties in this State are hereby prohibited from appointing any person to act as agent to sell the real estate of the said counties, or to assign the tax certificates belonging to such counties, or to transact any other business for such counties which may be legally done by any county officer. But in all cases, the property of the several counties shall be held by the clerks of the boards of supervisors of such counties, in the name of the county, and shall be disposed of by the clerks under the direction of the several county boards, and all appointments heretofore made of such agents shall cease and be of no effect from and after the publication of this act. County property to be held by clerks of board of supervisors
