Directors to elect president. SEC. 4. The affairs of said corporation shall be managed by a board of thirteen directors, who shall be chosen annually by ballot, on the days herein before prescribed, by the stockholders of the said company, the votes to be delivered in person or by proxy duly authorized, which directors shall appoint one of their own number to be president, and shall respectively serve for one year, or until other directors are elected; they shall have power to make and establish such by-laws, rules, and regulations, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state, as may be necessary for the well ordering the affairs of said company.

SEC. 5. None but stockholders shall be elected directors, and at every election, and in all cases where stockholders shall be called upon to vote, each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote, and in all cases of elections of directors, the thirteen stockholders, having the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

SEC. 6. The said directors shall meet at such times and places, and be convened in such manner as they may hereafter decide upon. A majority of said directors shall be a quorum for the transaction of business, who, in the absence of the president, shall appoint a president, pro tem. The said directors shall appoint a secretary, treasurer, and such engineers and other officers as they may find necessary; and they shall have full power to fix the compensation of all officers or agents, and may demand adequate security for the performance of their respective trusts; they shall decide the time and manner and proportions in which the said stockholders shall pay the money due on their respective shares, and forfeit to the use of the company the share or shares of every person or persons failing to pay any installment so required, at a reasonable period, not less than sixty days after the time by them appointed for the payment thereof; they shall have full powers to regulate tolls, to make such covenants, contracts, and agreements, with any person, co-partnership, or body politic whatsoever, as the construction and management of the works and the convenience and interest of the company may require, and in general to superintend and direct all the operations, receipts, disbursements, and other proceedings of the company: Provided, That no installment called in at any one time shall exceed two dollars and fifty cents per share, and that no installment shall be called for by the directors without at least thirty days' notice thereof in the newspapers herein before named.

SEC. 7. The directors, chosen as aforesaid, shall issue a certificate to each stockholder, for the number of shares he or she may subscribe for or hold in said corporation, signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary, and sealed with the common seal, subject, however, to all payments due, or to become due thereon, which stock shall be transferable in person, or by attorney, executors, administrators, guardians, or trustees, under such regulations as may be provided for in the by-laws of said company.

SEC. 8. At each annual meeting of the stockholders for the purpose of electing directors, the directors of the preceding year shall exhibit to them a complete statement of the affairs and doings of the company for such year; and special meetings of the stockholders may be called by order of the directors, or by stockholders holding one-fourth of the capital stock, on like notice as that required for annual meetings, specifying, moreover, the object of such meeting. But no business shall be transacted at such special meeting unless a majority in value of the stockholders shall attend in person or by proxy.

Route of road.

SEC. 9. The said company shall have power to locate and construct a single or double track rail road from the village of Beloit, in the county of Rock, via Janesville, to the village of Madison, in the county of Dane; and shall have power to transport, take, and carry property and persons upon the same, by power and force of steam, of animals, or of any mechanical, or other power, or by any combination of them, and they shall also have power to, make, conduct, and erect all such side tracks, turn-outs and connecting tracks, and also, all such ware houses, toll houses, machine shops, carriages, cars, and other works and appendages, as may be necessary for the convenience of the company for the use of the said rail road, and also to connect said rail road and operate the same with other rail roads and branch rail roads in the state of Wisconsin; and to consolidate the capital stock of the said company with the capital stock of any rail road company with which the road of the said company shall intersect, and shall have full power to place the road of this company, and its capital stock, so consolidated, under the direction of a joint board of directors, to be chosen on such terms as the directors of the said companies so consolidated shall agree upon.

May consolidate capital stock.

May enter upon lands

SEC. 10. It shall be lawful for said company, their officers, engineers, and agents, to enter upon any land for the purpose of exploring, surveying, and locating the route of said road, doing thereto no unnecessary damage; and when the said route shall be determined by the said company, it shall be lawful for them, their agents, officers, engineers, contractors, and servants, at any time, to enter upon, take possession of, and use such lands, not exceeding one hundred feet in width, along the line of said road, subject, however, to the payment of such compensation as the company may have agreed to pay therefor, or such as shall be ascertained in the manner hereinafter directed and provided in such cases respectively; and said company are further authorized, by their officers, engineers, agents, and servants, to enter upon lands adjacent to the rail road, beyond the limits of one hundred feet, in the manner provided in this act, when necessary for the purpose of erecting depot buildings, station houses, and necessary fixtures, for the operation and for the business of said road, and for the purpose of making drains, and giving a proper direction to water courses across or along said road, when the same are necessary, beyond the limits of said road, and to remove all substances and things which might endanger, obstruct, or interfere with the free use of said road, and to deposit earth, gravel, and stone taken from cuts, and to obtain earth, gravel, stone, and other materials for embankments and structures necessary to the construction and repairs of said road, doing, however, no unnecessary damage; and all lands so acquired, and all damage which shall be done to any lands or property, under the provisions of this section, shall be ascertained and paid for in the manner and agreeably to the provision hereinafter provided. And when such damages shall have been paid for or tendered, the title of the land occupied by such fixtures, excavations and embankments, shall vest in said company, for the purpose of keeping up and maintaining a rail road.

SEC. 11. When the said corporation cannot agree with the owner or owners of such required land, for the purchase thereof, or as to the compensation to be [paid] therefor, or when, by reason of the legal incapacity, or absence of any such owner or owners, no such agreement or purchase can be made, then, and in that case, it shall be lawful for the judge of the circuit court of the county in which such lands are situated, on application of either party, and at the cost and charge of said company, to appoint three disinterested persons residing in said county, whose duty it shall be to view and examine, or survey said lands, with the buildings and improvements, if any thereon, and to estimate the value of the land so taken or required by the said company, and all damages which the owner or owners thereof shall sustain, or may have sustained, by reason of the taking of the same for the construction and use of said road or works appertaining thereto, taking into consideration the advantages as well as the disadvantages of the same to the said owner or owners; and the persons so appointed, before entering upon the discharge of such duties, shall take an oath before some justice of the peace or other person competent by law to administer oaths, faithfully and according to the best of their abilities, to examine the land so taken or required by said company, and impartially to estimate and appraise the value of the same, and the damage or injury which the owner or owners thereof shall have sustained or may sustain by reason of the taking and using thereof by the said company, over and above the benefits and advantages which such owner or owners shall derive from the construction of such rail tered as hereinbefore provided, for the value of any lands, or for any damages for the taking and using of the same, and the amount specified in such judgment shall have been paid or tendered to the owner or owners of such lands, his her, or their legal representatives, the said company shall be entitled to the estate and interest in the same, as fully as if it had been conveyed in fee simple; and if such valuation be not received when tendered, it may, at any time thereafter, be received or may be collected from said company, by action at law, at the cost and expense of the person or persons entitled to the same: Provided, That the cost of any proceedings and judgment specified in the last preceding section shall be taxed by the court, and paid by said company, except in cases where, upon appeal, the verdict of the jury shall be for the same or a less sum than that reported by the said commissioners.

When company entitled to estate in dispute.

Proviso.

Sec. 13. In case there shall be incumbrances upon the land taken, as herein before provided, it shall be sufficient for the said company to deposit the amount of damages assessed, as hereinbefore provided, with the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the land lies, to be paid over by the clerk to the owner of said land or his lawfully authorized agent, upon the removal of said incumbrances.

When lands encumbered how damages to be paid

Sec. 14. The said rail road shall be so constructed as not to impede or obstruct the free use and passage of any public road or roads which may cross the same, and in all places where such rail road may cross, or in any way interfere with any public road, it shall be the duty of said company to make or cause to be made a sufficient causeway or passage way, to enable all persons traveling such public road to pass over or under such rail road without inconvenience: Provided: That in cases where said rail road may cross or come in contact with any public or private road, so as to occupy any part of such road, it shall be lawful for said company to construct said rail road across or upon such road, after altering and putting the same in as good condition as before; and for that purpose, the said company shall, previous to occupying any part of such road, construct a new road, in part or in whole, as may be necessary, on ground adjacent to such road, and in every respect complete, such newly constructed road or part of a road so interfered with, as substantially as it was previous to the disturbance and occupancy thereof by said company.

Not to obstruct public roads,

Proviso.

Sec. 15. For the convenience of persons owning or possessing lands through which said rail road shall pass, it shall be the duty of said company, when required, to make a good and sufficient passage over or under said rail road,

To make passage way

whenever the same may be necessary, to enable the occupants of said lands to pass over or under the same, with wagons, carts, and implements of husbandry, as occasion may require: Provided, That said company shall in no case be required to make more than one such passage-way for each farm, and when any public road shall cross said rail road in any farm, the person owning or possessing such farm shall not be entitled to require said company to make any additional causeway. And the said company shall, before opening the said road, through enclosed grounds, if requested by the owner thereof, erect such fencing as will preserve such enclosure entire; and shall, before they commence to use said road as a rail road, erect a good and sufficient fence on both sides of said road, through all such enclosed grounds, and shall maintain the same.

Proviso.

When to make dividends.

SEC. 16. So soon as the net profit accruing and received from the use of said road or part thereof, according to the provisions of this act, shall exceed six per cent. upon the amount of said capital stock paid in, the directors of said company shall make a division of such net profit among the stockholders, in proportion to their respective shares.

Penalty for obstructing road.

SEC. 17. Any person who shall wilfully and maliciously place any obstruction or thing upon the track of said road, or shall remove or damage any part thereof, in such a manner that the engine or cars may be impeded or thrown off the track, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, whether such result shall happen or not, and shall be punished for every such offence by imprisonment in the state prison for a term of not less than one nor more than five years, at the discretion of the court; and in case any damage shall result from the placing such obstruction or injury to said road, said party shall be liable to pay all such damage to said company, and to any other person damaged or injured thereby; and in case any accident shall happen in consequence of placing such obstruction, or in consequence of breaking or injuring said road, whereby death may be produced, the party so offending shall be adjudged guilty of murder in the first degree, and shall be punished agreeably to the law in such cases made and provided.

May borrow money.

SEC. 18. The said rail road company are hereby authorized and fully empowered, in their corporate name and capacity, to borrow any sum or sums of money from any person or persons, corporations, or body politic of any kind, and for any rate of interest which may be agreed upon by and between said company, and any person or party of whom such money may be obtained, and make and execute, in their corporate name, all necessary writings, notes, drafts, bonds, or other papers, and make, execute, and deliver such securities in amount and kind, as may be deemed expedient by said corporation, any law on the subject of usury in this state or any other state where such contract may be made, to the contrary notwithstanding; and the powers of said corporation, for the purposes aforesaid, and for all purposes necessary to carrying out the object of said company, namely: the construction of a rail road from Beloit, in the county of Rock, to Madison in the county of Dane; and the contracts, and official acts of said company, are hereby declared binding in law and equity, upon said corporation, and all other parties to said contracts.

SEC. 19. This act shall be in force from and after its passage; and it shall be lawful for said company to purchase lands adjoining or adjacent to said rail road, for the purpose of procuring earth, gravel, stone, or other materials for the construction and repair of said road or buildings and fixtures connected therewith; and whenever such lands shall no longer be needed for the purposes aforesaid, the said company are hereby authorized to sell and convey the same. May purchase lands adjacent to track.

SEC. 20. This act shall be construed favorably to effect the purposes hereby intended, and the same is hereby declared to be a public act, and copies thereof printed by authority of the State of Wisconsin shall be received as evidence thereof. How act construed
