SEC. 3. The said commissioners, or a majority of them, after the said three hundred shares of such stock shall have been subscribed as aforesaid, shall give at least thirty days' notice in the newspapers hereinbefore mentioned, of the time and place by them appointed for the subscribers or stockholders to meet for the purpose of electing thirteen directors, and annually thereafter the said stockholders shall meet on the third Wednesday of January, for the purpose of electing directors as aforesaid, upon a like previous notice to be given as aforesaid: ^{To give notice of meeting.} Provided, That previous to the first election, the commissioners hereinbefore named shall elect one of their number president, and they shall perform all the duties and be invested with all the powers of directors: ^{Provide} And provided, That if from any cause an election shall not be held at the regular time specified therefor, the same may be held at any other time, on notice as aforesaid; that until such election, the directors of the preceding year shall continue to act, and that this charter shall not be avoided by reason of the irregularity or want of such election: And provided also, That in case of vacancy from the death, removal, or resignation of any director, his place may be filled by a majority of the board of directors.

SEC. 4. The affairs of said corporation shall be managed by a board of thirteen directors, who shall be chosen annually by ballot, on the days hereinbefore prescribed, by the stockholders of the said company; the votes to be delivered in person or by proxy, duly authorized, which directors shall appoint one of their own number to be president, and shall respectively serve one year, or until other directors are elected; they shall have power to make and establish such by-laws, rules, and regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state, as may be necessary for the well ordering the affairs of said company. ^{Affairs to be conducted by board of directors.}

SEC. 5. None but stockholders shall be elected direc-

Qualification of directors. of tors, and at every election, and in all cases where stockholders shall be called upon to vote, each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote, and in all cases of elections of directors, the thirteen stockholders having the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected.

Directors to appoint officers. SEC. 6. The said directors shall meet at such times and places, and be convened in such manner as they may hereafter decide upon. A majority of said directors shall be a quorum for the transaction of business, who in the absence of the president, shall appoint a president pro tem. The said directors shall appoint a treasurer, a secretary, and such engineers and other officers as they may find necessary; and they shall have full power to fix the compensation of all officers and agents, and may demand adequate security for the performance of their respective trusts; they shall decide the time, manner and proportions in which the said stockholders shall pay the money due on their respective shares, and forfeit to the use of the company the share or shares of every person or persons failing to pay any installment so required, at a reasonable period not less than sixty days after the time by them appointed for the payment thereof; they shall have full power to regulate tolls, to make such contracts, covenants, and agreements with any person, co-partnership, or body politic whatsoever, as the construction and management of the works and the convenience and interest of the company may require, and in general, to superintend and direct all the operations, receipts, disbursements, and other proceedings of the company: Provided, That no instalment called in at any one time shall exceed twelve dollars per share, and that no instalment shall be called for by the directors without at least thirty days' notice thereof in the newspapers hereinbefore named.

Proviso,

Directors to issue certificates. SEC. 7. The directors chosen as aforesaid shall issue a certificate to each stockholder for the number of shares he or she may subscribe for or hold in said corporation, signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary, and sealed with the common seal, subject however, to all payments due or to become due thereon, which stock shall be transferable in person or by attorney, executors, administrators, guardians, or trustees, under such regulations as may be provided for in the by-laws of said company.

To make annual statement. SEC. 8. At each annual meeting of the stockholders for the purpose of electing directors, the directors of the preceding year shall exhibit to them a complete statement of the affairs and doings of the company for such year; and special meetings of the stockholders may be called by order of the directors, or by stockholders holding one-fourth of the capital stock, on like notice as that required for annual meetings, specifying moreover the object of such meetings; but no business shall be transacted at such special meeting, unless a majority in value of the stockholders shall attend in person or by proxy.

SEC. 9. The said company shall have power to locate and construct a single or double track railroad, from the village of Sheboygan, in the county of Sheboygan, via Fond du Lac, to the Mississippi river; and shall have power to transport, take, and carry property and persons upon the same by power and force of steam, of animals, or of any mechanical or other power, or by any combination of them; and they shall also have power to make, construct and erect, all such side tracks, turn-outs, and connecting tracks, and also such ware houses, toll houses, machine shops, carriages, cars, and other works and appendages, as may be necessary for the convenience of the company, for the use of said rail road, and also to connect said rail road and operate the same with other rail roads and branch rail roads in the state of Wisconsin, and consolidate the capital stock of said company with the capital stock of any rail road company with which the roads of said companies shall intersect, and shall have full power to place the road of this company and its capital stock so consolidated, under the direction of a joint board of directors to be chosen on such terms as the directors of the companies consolidating their capital stock shall agree upon.

SEC. 10. If said corporation shall not within fifteen years from the passage of this act, complete the construction of said rail road, then the rights, privileges, and powers of said corporation under this act shall be void.

SEC. 11. It shall be lawful for said company, their officers, engineers, and agents, to enter upon any land for the purpose of exploring, surveying, and locating the route of said road, doing thereto no unnecessary damage; and when the said route shall be determined by the said company, it shall be lawful for them, their agents, officers, engineers, contractors and servants, at any time to enter upon, take possession of, and use such lands, not exceeding one hundred and thirty feet in width along the line of said route, subject, however, to the payment of such compensation as the company may have agreed to pay therefor, or such as shall be ascertained in the manner hereinafter directed and provided in such cases respectively; and said company are further authorized by their officers, engineers, agents, and servants, to enter upon lands adjacent to the road beyond the limits of one hundred and thirty feet, in the manner provided in this act, when necessary for the purpose of erecting depot buildings, station houses, and necessary fixtures for the operation and for the business of said road, and for the purpose of making drains and giving a proper direction to water-courses across or along said road, when the same are necessary, beyond the limits of said road, and to remove all substances and things which might endanger, obstruct, or interfere with the free use of said road, and to deposit earth, gravel, and stone taken from cuts, and to obtain earth, gravel, stone, and other materials, for embankments and structures necessary to the construction and repairs of said road, doing, however, no unnecessary damage, and all lands so acquired, and all damages which shall be done to any lands or property under the provisions of this section shall be ascertained and paid for in the manner and agreeably to the provisions hereinafter provided; and when such damage shall have been paid for, or tendered, the title of the land occupied by such fixtures, excavations, and embankments, shall vest in said company, for the purposes aforesaid.

SEC. 12. When said corporation cannot agree with the owner or owners of such required land for the purchase thereof, or as to the compensation to be paid therefor, or when by reason of the legal incapacity, or absence of any such owner or owners no such agreement or purchase can be made, then, and in that case, it shall be lawful for any judge of the supreme court of this state, on application of the said company, and at the cost and charge of said company, to appoint three disinterested persons residing in the counties through which the said road runs, to view and examine the lands so taken, with the buildings and improvements, if any thereon, and to estimate the value of the land so taken or required by the said company, and all damages which the owner or owners thereof shall sustain or may have sustained by reason of the taking of the same for the construction and use of said road or works appertaining thereto, and it shall be the duty of the said company to give three weeks notice of their application to the judge of the supreme court for the appointment of the said commissioners, to be published for three successive weeks in a newspaper published at the capital of this state, and also in a newspaper, if there shall be any published, in each of the counties through which said road may be located, and the affidavit of the publisher or printer shall be legal evidence of such publication; and the persons so appointed, before entering upon the discharge of such duties,
