

CHAPTER 126.

Published October 16.

An Act to provide for the revision of the general laws of the State of Wisconsin.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Governor to appoint competent persons to revise laws, &c.

SECTION 1. The governor shall, without delay, after the passage of this act, appoint three competent persons as revisers, whose duty it shall be to collect, compile and digest the general laws of this state, for the purpose of preparing a new edition of such laws for publication, and that said revisers report such compilation, as soon as may be to the legislature of Wisconsin, and said revisers shall accompany their report with such proposed amendments as they may think proper to suggest.

To fill vacancy

SEC. 2. Should either of said revisers refuse to act, or become incapable of acting through sickness or other casualty, it shall be the duty of the governor to appoint some suitable person in his stead.

Compensation.

SEC. 3. The said revisers shall receive such compensation as the legislature may deem just and reasonable, not less than five dollars per day, and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage; Provided, that pay for no more than two hundred days service shall be allowed.

Approved October 13, 1856.

CHAPTER 127.

Published November 18.

An Act to fix the time when an act entitled "an act to simplify and abridge the practice, pleadings, and proceedings in the courts of this state," approved October 10th, 1856, shall take effect.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Extending time of taking effect of code.

SECTION 1. The act entitled "an act to simplify and abridge the practice, pleadings and proceedings in the