CHAPTER 382.

[Published May 1, 1860.]

AN ACT providing for the filing of an official oath and bond of the county judge of Polk county.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be lawful for Isaac P. Thale, the acting judge of the county of Polk to make, and file, with the proper officer, his official oath and bond, at any time within sixty days after the passage of this act, and upon such oath and bond being filed, the said county judge shall continue to hold said office and exercise the powers and duties of county judge during the term for which he was elected. Authority conferred on Isaac P. Thale

SEC. 2. None of the official acts or proceedings of said county judge shall be deemed or taken to be invalid or illegal for the reason or on the account that the said county judge had not taken or filed his official oath, or executed or filed his official bond within the time and in the manner prescribed by law. Acts of county judge not invalidated.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 2, 1860.
