

the fact of any such party defendant having been a member or officer of any such company, regiment, corps or division, and the fact of such company, regiment, corps or division having been mustered or received into the service of the United States or of this state, shall be received as prima facie evidence of the right to the exemption aforesaid: provided, the time ^{Provided.} during which any person is exempt from civil process under the provisions of this act, shall not be taken as any part of the time limited by law for the commencement of any civil action in favor of or against such person."

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 25, 1861.

CHAPTER 8.

[Published May 25, 1861.]

AN ACT to provide for the aid of Volunteers in the service of the United States or of this State.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates mustered into the service of the United States or of this state, in pursuance of any law of this state, shall receive from the time of being so mustered, in addition to the pay provided for like non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates in the army of the United States, the sum of five dollars per month to all volunteers having families dependent on them for their support. Additional pay to volunteers having families.

SECTION 2. The additional pay provided in section one of this act, shall not be paid at the expiration of each month, but shall remain in the state treasury, and the amount there accumulated to the credit of any soldier shall be used and appropriated by the state treasurer to pay such orders as may be drawn on him, in accordance with law for the support and maintainance of the family of such soldier; but if the pay so accumulated to the credit of any soldier shall not be drawn To be placed to the credit of the volunteers.

from the treasury on such orders, it shall be paid to such soldier or his legal representative at the expiration of his term of service.

How the money may be drawn.

SECTION 3. Upon the presentation to the secretary of state of an order of the wife or person having charge of the family of any soldier mustered into the service of this state or the United States, under the provisions of the laws of this state, upon which shall be a certificate of a justice of the peace of the town in which such soldier shall reside, stating that the person drawing the order is the wife or the person having charge of the family of such soldier, the secretary of state shall draw his warrant upon the war fund in the state treasury for the amount of said order, and the state treasurer shall pay the same on presentation: provided, that amount shall stand to the credit of such soldier on the books in the treasurer's office.

Appropriation.

SECTION 4. There is hereby appropriated out of the war fund, not otherwise appropriated, a sum of money sufficient to pay all expenditures under this act.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved May 25, 1861.

CHAPTER 9.

[Published May 27, 1861.]

AN ACT to provide for the payment of discharged Volunteers.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Payment to three months' volunteers.

SECTION 1. Each and every member of a military company which has volunteered and reported for three months' service, in obedience to the order and in compliance with the proclamation of the governor requiring and inviting such service, and which has been accepted and put under drill by the governor, who has been discharged without being mustered and received into the service of the United States, because of the extension of time for which volunteers were called from three months to three years, shall be allowed and