

CHAPTER 69.

[Published March 8, 1862.]

AN ACT to amend section four of chapter one hundred and seventy-eight of the revised statutes, entitled "of the change of venue in criminal cases."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. Section four of chapter one hundred and seventy-eight of the revised statutes, entitled "of the change of venue in criminal cases," is hereby amended so as to read as follows, viz. : "Section 4. When the court has ordered a change of venue, they shall require the accused, if the offense be bailable, to enter into a recognizance with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court or judge, in such sum as the court or judge may direct, conditioned for his appearance in the court to which the venue is changed, at the first day of the next term thereof, and to abide the order of such court ; and in default of such recognizance, a warrant shall be issued, directed to the sheriff, commanding him safely to convey the prisoner to the jail of the county where he or she is to be tried, by the first day of the next term of the circuit court to be holden in such county, there to be safely kept by the jailor [jailer] thereof, until discharged by due course of law."

When venue changed, recognizance to be required.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication ; and so much of any law as conflicts with the provisions of this act, is hereby repealed.

Repeal.
