

CHAPTER 205.

[Published April 5, 1864.]

AN ACT to amend section one of chapter eighty-four of the general laws of 1863, entitled "an act to extend the time for the expiration of the charter of the Wisconsin Central railroad company, as limited by the act of incorporation," approved March 4th, 1863.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Time to complete road extended.

When road to be completed to Jefferson.

Not to affect town bonds.

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter eighty-four of the general laws of 1863, is hereby amended, by striking out the words, "sixty-five," in the eighth line, and inserting in place thereof the words, "sixty-six," so that it will read as follows: "Section 1. All the rights and privileges, franchises and immunities granted to the Wisconsin Central railroad company, approved March 4th, 1863, are hereby extended to said company for and during the term of five years from and after the third day of March, 1863: provided, that the said railroad shall be completed from the state line to the village of Jefferson, by the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six; and provided, further, that nothing in this act shall in any manner affect any town bonds issued in aid of the construction of said road, or deprive the town issuing the same of any defense which might have been interposed in any suit upon said bonds, if this act had not been passed."

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 25, 1864.
