

CHAPTER 21.

[Published February 11, 1864.]

AN ACT to legalize all the proceedings of a special town meeting, for the purpose of raising bounty for volunteers, in the town of Theresa, Dodge county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. All the proceedings and acts had and held prior to and at a certain special town meeting or election held in the town of Theresa, county of Dodge, and state of Wisconsin, on the 5th day of January, A. D. 1864, and the tax voted to be levied for bounties to volunteers who should thereafter enlist and be credited to said town in the next ensuing draft, are hereby declared to be legal and valid for all purposes whatever, notwithstanding any defect, omissions or insufficiencies in the notices, time or manner of posting the same, or in holding and conducting said special town meeting or election. Special town meeting legalized

SECTION 2. The tax voted to be levied upon the taxable property of the town of Theresa, county of Dodge, and state of Wisconsin, for the purpose of paying bounties to volunteers, at a special town meeting held in and for said town of Theresa, in the county of Dodge, on the 5th day of January, A. D. 1864, is hereby legalized and declared to be legal and valid for all purposes. Tax legalized.

SECTION 3. This act shall be published immediately, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 9, 1864.
