

GENERAL LAWS—CH. 3, 4.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 28, 1864.

CHAPTER 4.

[Published January 30, 1864.]

AN ACT to legalize the proceedings prior to and of a certain special town meeting, held in the town of Adams, in the county of Green, and the tax voted and levied at said special town meeting.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All the proceedings and acts had and held prior to and at a certain special town meeting held in the town of Adams, county of Green, on the nineteenth day of December, A. D. 1863, and the tax voted and levied for bounties to volunteers who should enlist from said town, are hereby declared to be legal and valid for all purposes whatever, notwithstanding any defect, omissions or insufficiencies in calling, holding or conducting said town meeting.

Proceedings legalized.

SECTION 2. The tax voted and levied upon the taxable property of the town of Adams, in county of Green; for the purpose of paying bounties to volunteers, at a special town meeting held in and for said town of Adams, in the county of Green, on the nineteenth day of December, A. D. 1863, is hereby legalized and declared to be legal and valid.

Bounty tax legalized.

SECTION 3. This act shall be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 28, 1864.
