

hold the same, and may also require bonds from each and all of them for the faithful performance of their respective duties, with such penalty as may seem fit and proper.

SECTION 4. It is hereby declared that the sole and only object of this corporation is to procure specimens of minerals, with a view to contributing the same to the state cabinet, and also for furnishing statistical information in relation to the lead mines of the state.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 4, 1864.

CHAPTER 426.

[Published April 29, 1864.]

AN ACT to amend an act to incorporate the Swedes iron company.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Swedes iron company is hereby authorized to construct, a floating or standing bridge, with a suitable draw for the passage of vessels, across the old river bed in the city of Milwaukee, from the west shore to the island, at any point that may be situated between the straight cut and the old harbor pier, upon said [such] plan and suited to said [such] regulations as shall be prescribed by the common council of said city.

May build floating bridge.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 4, 1864.