

disinterested freeholders of such town to appraise the damages.”

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 4, 1864.

CHAPTER 471.

[Published April 5, 1864.]

AN ACT to define the residences of certain soldiers from this state, in the military service of the United States.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Residence not affected by taking bounty from any other town.

SECTION 1. No soldier's residence shall be deemed to be changed for any purpose whatever, by reason of his having received a local bounty from and having been credited upon the quota or quotas of a town, ward or city other than that in which such soldier actually resided at the time of volunteering; but for the purpose of exercising the right of suffrage in accordance with the provisions of chapter (11) eleven of the laws passed at the extra session of 1862, and chapter fifty-nine of the general laws of 1863, or either of said acts, and for all other purposes, every such soldier shall be deemed to be a resident of the town, ward or city in which he had a legal residence at the time of volunteering.

Copies of this act to be sent to each military company.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to transmit three printed copies of this act to each military company from this state, as soon as practicable; and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 4, 1864.