CHAPTER 71.

[Published February 24, 1864.]

AN ACT to legalize the town meeting of the town of New Haven, in the county of Adams, held on the 25th day of December, 1863.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Special town meeting and tax for payment of bounties to volunteers, legalized.

SECTION 1. The special town meeting held in the town of New Haven, in the county of Adams, on the twenty-fifth day of December, 1863, for the purpose of raising a special tax to pay extra bounties to volunteers into the military service of the United States, is hereby declared legal and valid for all intents and purposes for which the same was held; and all acts done in pursuance of the vote or votes of said meeting, by the officers of said town or any of them, are hereby declared valid, the same as if the law had been fully complied with in notifying and conducting said meeting.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 18, 1864.
