

this act, shall be made, signed and attested by the president and secretary of the board of regents of said university, and upon presentation to him of such certificates, the secretary of state shall draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the amount thus certified, who shall upon such warrant pay the amount out of any money in the state treasury belonging to the university fund income.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 14, 1865.

CHAPTER 33.

[Published February 17, 1865.]

AN ACT to legalize the proceedings of a special town meeting held in the town of New Holstein, Calumet county, on the 10th day of January, 1865, for the purpose of raising bounties to volunteers.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All the proceedings of a special meeting held in the town of New Holstein, in the county of Calumet, on the 10th day of January, 1865, for the purpose of raising money to pay bounties to volunteers, and all acts of the supervisors or other officers of said town, done under and in pursuance of such proceedings, are hereby declared to be legal and binding in all respects whatsoever: provided, that no greater sum than two hundred dollars shall be paid to any person volunteering, or to any person furnishing a substitute, prior to the draft ordered to fill the call of the president of the United States, of date the 19th day of December, 1864, and that such person be credited to said town on its quota.

Proceedings
legalized.

Limit to bounty.

SECTION 2. All orders which have been or may hereafter be issued by the supervisors of said town, in pursuance of the proceedings of said meeting, shall be valid and binding, and the tax to pay such orders shall be entered in the next assessment roll of said town, and levied and collected with and the same as the other Orders: legal.

taxes of said town for the year 1865 may by law be levied and collected.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 14, 1865.

CHAPTER 34.

[Published February 17, 1865.]

AN ACT to authorize the town of Emmet, in Dodge county, to levy and collect a tax to pay bounties to volunteers.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Bounty tax authorized.

SECTION 1. The town of Emmet, in the county of Dodge, is hereby authorized at any regular or special town meeting, to vote to raise a tax to pay bounties to volunteers who shall have or may hereafter volunteer into the military service of the United States, under any of the calls by the president heretofore made.

Limit to bounty.

SECTION 2. The town officers of the said town of Emmet are hereby authorized immediately to levy and collect any tax so voted to be raised: provided, no more than two hundred dollars shall be paid to any one volunteer.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 14, 1865.