CHAPTER 501.

[Published May 31, 1865.]

AN ACT to enable the town of Brooklyn, in the county of Green, to raise money to pay indebtedness.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. The qualified electors of the town of Brooklyn, in the county of Green, are hereby authorized, at their next annual town meeting, or some legal town meeting thereafter, to vote to raise by tax levied upon the real and personal property in said town, a sum of money not exceeding six hundred dollars, for the purpose of paying the indebtedness of the same, incurred in procuring volunteers for the United States military service, to the credit of said town of Brooklyn, in the year 1864.

May make $600 to pay bounty indebtedness.

SECTION 2. The question of raising such sum above mentioned, shall be submitted to the said electors. The result shall be ascertained, declared and recorded, and the money, if so determined by a majority of votes in its favor, shall be collected, in the same manner and subject to the same provisions of law as other moneys that are now raised for other town purposes.

Question to be voted upon.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 10, 1865.
