

CHAPTER 151.

[Published April 19, 1867.]

AN ACT to provide for the collection of delinquent village taxes, and to repeal sections 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56 and 57 of chapter 70 of the revised statutes, entitled "of the incorporation of villages," and all other acts or parts of acts which authorize the treasurer of any village to sell lands for delinquent taxes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. When the time for the collection of village taxes under any warrant issued therefor, shall expire in any village incorporated under any general or special law of this state, the treasurer of such village shall make out and deliver to the clerk of the town in which such village is situated, a certified list of the lots, pieces or tracts of land in said village upon which any such village taxes remain unpaid, with the amount of such delinquent tax upon each of said lots, pieces or parcels of land; and if such list is returned to said town clerk before the completion of the assessment roll of said town for the same year, the said clerk shall add said delinquent village taxes to said assessment roll, opposite to the description of the proper lots, pieces or parcels of land therein, and the said delinquent village taxes shall be collected with and in the same manner as the town taxes. If such list is returned to the town clerk after the completion of the assessment roll, and before the town treasurer's return of delinquent taxes, he shall deliver said list to the said treasurer, who shall collect the same with the other taxes in said village, and add what remains uncollected of said village taxes to his list of delinquent taxes returned to the county treasurer, who shall collect the same or sell the lots, pieces or parcels of lands aforesaid for such delinquent taxes, in the same manner as lands are sold for other delinquent taxes; and all subsequent proceedings in relation thereto shall be the same, in all respects, as in the case of lands sold for other delinquent taxes.

If not collected by village treasurer, to be returned to town treasurer, and by him to county treasurer, and lands sold.

SECTION 2. Every town treasurer or county treasurer who shall collect or receive any money on account of such village taxes, shall pay the same to the treasurer of the proper village, and take duplicate receipts therefor, and file one of said receipts with the clerk of his town or county.

Repealed.

SECTION 3. Sections fifty-one, fifty-two, fifty-three, fifty-four, fifty-five, fifty-six and fifty-seven of chapter seventy of the revised statutes, entitled "of the incorporation of villages," and all other acts or parts of acts which conflict with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

Approved April 11, 1867.

CHAPTER 152.

[Published April 19, 1867.]

AN ACT to provide for continuing the work on the state capitol.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Proposals for rotunda.

SECTION 1. The board of building commissioners are hereby authorized to provide by contract, let to the lowest responsible bidder, for the building of the rotunda of the state capitol and roofing the same, the contract to be let and work prosecuted and paid for as provided in chapter 59 of the general laws of eight-hundred and sixty-six, and the work to be completed and roofed on or before the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven: provided, that the cost of the said work shall not exceed eighty-five thousand dollars, nor shall any contract be let for more than said sum.

Maximum cost.

Appropriation.

SECTION 2. For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act, there is hereby appropriated out of the state treasury the sum of eighty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

Sec. 4, chap. 59, laws of 1866, repealed.

SECTION 3. All of section four (4) of chapter fifty-nine (59) of the general laws of 1866, entitled "an act to provide for completing the state capitol, and heating the same," and all the provisions of said chapter which are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed, but all other parts of said act are
