

CHAPTER 87.

[Published April 9, 1867.]

AN ACT in relation to proceeding in the county courts of this state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

In case property has not been bequeathed.

SECTION 1. In all proceedings in the county court upon the probate of a will, where there is property, real, personal or mixed, belonging to the testator or testatrix at the time of his or her death, and not bequeathed or devised by the will, the executor or administrator with the will annexed shall give bond and account for such property, the same as if it had been bequeathed or devised by the will of the testator or testatrix, and the court, upon the distribution and assignment of the property of the estate bequeathed or devised by the will, shall also in the same proceeding assign and make distribution of the estate remaining and not devised or bequeathed to the person or persons entitled to the same.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 6, 1867.
