

CHAPTER 65.

[Published March 5, 1868]

AN ACT to provide for the settlement of the claim of E. A. Calkins against the state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Secretary of state to settle with E. A.
Calkins.

SECTION 1. The secretary of state is hereby authorized and directed to ascertain the number of assessment blanks accepted and used by the several counties in the state, which were furnished such counties from the office of the secretary of state in the year 1858, and to charge each county with the number so received and used, at the rate of one dollar per quire, and to add the amount so charged to each county to the amount of state tax apportioned to each of said counties for the year 1868. Should the secretary of state be unable to ascertain definitely from the records in his office the number of blanks received and used by each county, he shall take the list published on pages 59 and 60 of the assembly journal for the annual session of the year 1859, and charge the counties respectively with the number received by each as shown by said list.

How amount to be ascertained.

SECTION 2. The secretary of state shall ascertain the aggregate amount charged to the several counties of the state in pursuance of the preceding section, and after deducting from such aggregate amount the sum of twelve hundred and fifty dollars, he shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer, payable to E. A. Calkins or his assigns, for the balance of said aggregate amount: provided, said E. A. Calkins shall deliver to the secretary of state, properly executed, a good and sufficient release in full of all demands or claims either in law or equity, growing out of or arising from any printing, publishing or advertising done by said Calkins or by the late firm of Calkins and Webb, for the state of Wisconsin.

May draw warrant for amount

SECTION 3. The secretary of state shall deliver to E. A. Calkins or his assigns the warrant authorized to be drawn by the preceding section upon delivery to him of the release therein mentioned, and the state treasurer shall pay said warrant upon presentation.

SECTION 4. There is hereby appropriated out of Appropriation. any money in the state treasury belonging to the general fund not otherwise appropriated, a sum sufficient to carry out the preceding sections of this act. Treasury warrant No. 688, dated November 15th, 1858, is hereby cancelled and declared to be void and of no effect.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
