

CHAPTER 163.

[Published March 17, 1869.]

AN ACT to amend section 6, chapter 14 of the revised statutes, entitled "of resignations, vacancies and removals, and of supplying vacancies."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

SECTION 1. Section six of chapter fourteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the following words: "and such clerk may appeal to the circuit court for the same county from any order removing him from office, in like manner as is provided by law in case of the disallowance of an account against the county, and upon such appeal the circuit court shall proceed to review the action of said board in the premises, and shall render such judgment thereon as law and justice shall require: provided, that this act shall not apply to removals made before the passage of this act; and provided, further, that in every case in which the county board shall for any cause remove the clerk, and he shall take an appeal from said order of removal, he shall be disqualified from acting as such clerk of the board during the pending of said appeal in court, and it shall be the duty of the county board to appoint a clerk whose duty it shall be to act until said cause is disposed of by the court."

SECTION 2. This action [act] shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 11, 1869.
