

CHAPTER 143.

[Published March 22, 1870.]

AN ACT to prescribe the time for holding the terms of the circuit court for the county of Adams, in the seventh judicial circuit.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Terms fixed.

SECTION 1. From and after the first day of July, A. D. 1870, the general terms of the circuit court in and for the county of Adams in the seventh judicial circuit in this state shall be held on the third Monday in October and the third Monday in March, in each year.

Not to change return of process.

SECTION 2. All writs, summons, process, indictments, recognizances and other proceedings, made returnable to the terms now fixed by law, shall be deemed and considered returnable to the terms as the same are prescribed by this act; and all adjournments, continuances, motions and notices of proceedings in the said court, made or taken to any term subsequent to the date when this act shall take effect, shall be held and taken for the time herein provided for the holding of the terms of said court.

Repealed.

SECTION 3. All acts or parts of any act, so far as they relate to the holding of the terms of the circuit court in said Adams county, and contravene the provisions of this act, are for the purposes of this act, hereby repealed: provided, this act shall not affect the time for holding the terms of the circuit court in any other county as now fixed by law.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the 15th day of June, A. D. 1870.

Approved March 16, 1870.
