

CHAPTER 147.

[Published March 25, 1870.]

AN ACT requiring all city and village treasurers to return delinquent lands on which the state has any claim to the county treasurer, who shall return the same to the state treasurer.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Duty of city,
village and
county treasurers.

SECTION 1. If the taxes on any of the state lands held on contract, or that have been mortgaged to the state for any purpose, lying within the boundaries of any city or incorporated village of this state, shall not be paid during the time required by law for the payment of taxes, the treasurer of such city or incorporated village shall return a list of such lands on which the taxes have not been paid, to the county treasurer, at the time fixed by law for town treasurers to return delinquent lands. And the county treasurer shall forward to the state treasurer a certified list of said lands in accordance with the provisions of section 68 of chapter 538 of the general laws of the year 1865; and said section is hereby made applicable to cities and villages. And so much of the charter of any city or village of this state as requires the said lands to be returned by the city or village treasurer directly to the state treasurer, is hereby repealed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 17, 1870.
