

Received at the executive office March 15, 1871, and deposited with the secretary of state March 20, 1871.

The foregoing act having been presented to the governor for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of the legislature in which it originated, within the time prescribed by the constitution of the state of Wisconsin, has become a law without his approval.

CHAPTER 101.

[Published April 1, 1871.]

AN ACT to amend sections 48 and 102 of chapter 155 of the general laws of 1863, entitled "an act to codify the laws of this state relating to common schools."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

SECTION 1. Section forty-three of chapter one hundred and fifty-five of the general laws of 1863 is hereby amended by adding to the first clause of said section the following words: "and it shall be the duty of the district clerk to classify those children who from defect of vision or of hearing or of intellect, (under the heads of blind, deaf and dumb and idiotic), are incapacitated for instruction in the common schools, and report the same to the state superintendent, who shall publish the same in his annual report."

Amended.

SECTION 2. Section one hundred and two of chapter one hundred and fifty-five of the general laws of 1863 is hereby amended by inserting after the word, "geography," in the fourth line, the words, "and constitution of the United States and of the state of Wisconsin."

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 20, 1871.
