CHAPTER 167.

[Published March 31, 1871.]

AN ACT to authorize the secretary of state to audit the claim of Ralph Marsh, for certain taxes and interest, erroneously paid by him.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Shall audit claim.

SECTION 1. The secretary of state of the state of Wisconsin is hereby authorized and directed to audit the claim of Ralph Marsh, for the taxes paid by him and his assignor, with interest from the time of payment, as set forth in the foregoing preamble, and also the interest on the principal sum paid and advanced by him or his assignor in payment for said land, subject only to a deduction of the amount that may be allowed to him by the commissioners of school and university lands under existing laws, and the secretary of state shall draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the amount so found due to said Marsh on said account.

Appropriated.

SECTION 2. There is hereby appropriated to said Ralph Marsh, out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, a sum sufficient to pay the amount of the warrant to be drawn by the secretary of state, under the provisions of this act.

SECTION 3. This act shall be in force after its passage and publication.

Approved March 24, 1871.
