

CHAPTER 25.

[Published March 2, 1872.]

AN ACT to amend section six of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight of the revised statutes, entitled "of claim and delivery of personal property."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Amended.

When defendant may require return of property.

SECTION 1. Section six of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight of the revised statutes, and entitled "of claim and delivery of personal property," is hereby amended to be and read as follows: At any time before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the defendant may, if he do not except to the sureties of the plaintiff, require the return thereof, upon giving to the sheriff a written undertaking, executed by two or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff for the delivery thereof to the plaintiff, if such delivery be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may for any cause be recovered against the defendant. If a return of the property be not so required within three days after the taking and service of notice to the defendant, it shall be delivered to the plaintiff, except as provided in section eleven of this chapter.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 28, 1872.
