

CHAPTER 36.

[Published March 4, 1872.]

AN ACT to amend sections 13 and 16, chapter 264, laws of 1860, concerning appeals, writs of error, and proceedings thereon.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Amended.

SECTION 1. Section 13 of chapter 264 of the general laws of 1860, is amended by adding thereto the following: When issues of fact shall be tried by the court, and a bill of exceptions thereafter served, the party on whom such bill shall be served may, within ten days after such service, file exceptions to the findings of fact, and serve the same as amendments to the bill of exceptions, and the same shall, at his request, be incorporated into such bill of exceptions.

May amend bill of exceptions.

Amended.

SECTION 2. Section 16 of chapter 264, aforesaid, is hereby amended by adding thereto the words, "by either party."

Application of act.

SECTION 3. This act shall apply to all cases now pending in any court of this state, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication, and all acts and parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed. And in all cases tried before this act shall take effect, no exceptions shall be required to be filed by the respondent, to entitle him to a review of the findings of fact on appeal.

Approved March 6, 1872.
