

CHAPTER 62.

[Published March 19, 1872.]

AN ACT to provide for the payment of the witnesses who appeared and testified before the joint investigating committee appointed by virtue of joint resolution No. 16, senate, of the session of 1871.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the chairman of the joint investigating committee appointed by virtue of joint resolution No. 16, senate, of the session of 1871, to file in the office of the secretary of state, a certificate, showing the names and residence of such witness who appeared and was sworn before said committee, the number of days in attendance and the number of miles each has traveled by the most usual route, from his residence to the place where he so testified. Shall file certificate.

SECTION 2. Upon the filing of the certificate mentioned in the preceding section, it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to draw his warrant upon the treasurer, in favor of each of said witnesses, for the sum that may be due him, for mileage and per diem, as is now provided by law for witnesses in like cases. Shall draw warrant.

SECTION 3. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury, not otherwise appropriated, a sum of money sufficient to carry out the provisions of this act. Appropriated.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 16, 1872.
