

CHAPTER 98.

[Published April 3, 1872.]

AN ACT to provide for levying and collecting a state tax for the year 1872.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

State tax levied. SECTION 1. There is hereby levied upon all the taxable property of the state, a state tax for the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, of five hundred thousand dollars, in addition to the amount authorized to be levied by existing laws. Said tax shall be apportioned among and assessed upon the several counties of the state, and collected and paid into the state treasury, as provided by law.

Shall apportion amount. The secretary of state shall apportion the amount hereby levied among the several counties of the state, and shall certify the same as now provided by law; and it shall be the duty of the county clerks of the several counties to apportion the amount so certified, among the several towns, cities and incorporated villages within his county, and certify the same as provided by law, which amount so apportioned and certified shall be collected and paid over according to law.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 22, 1872.
