

CHAPTER 204.

[Published March 24, 1874.]

AN ACT to authorize V. Brooks and his associates to maintain a series of dams on "Little Sandy," a tributary of the "Little Eau Claire" river in Marathon county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Names of incorporators.

Powers vested.

May collect fees.

Amount of fees collectable.

SECTION 1. V. Brooks, Robert Wallace, E. A. Redford and John H. Redfield, or their assigns, or either of them, are hereby authorized to improve "Little Sandy" river, a tributary to "Little Eau Claire" river in Marathon county, Wisconsin, by all such necessary dams, slides and other works as shall improve and facilitate the driving and running of logs, timber and lumber at any and all points on said river above its intersection with "Little Eau Claire" river, and they, or either of them, or their assigns, shall have the right to charge and collect therefor, from the owner of any and all logs, timber and lumber run or drove over such dams, slides or other works, at the rate of six cents per thousand feet board measurement, and they, or either of them, shall have a lien on any and all such logs, timber or lumber hereafter drove or run over such improvements: and may enforce the same in the same manner as liens for labor or other services are or may be enforced upon such property under existing laws of this state.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 10, 1874.
