

[No. 191, A.]

[Published March 27, 1878.]

CHAPTER 223.

AN ACT to legalize the official acts of Abraham Kuntz, a justice of the peace in the county of Wood.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows.

Legalized.

SECTION 1. All the official acts of Abraham Kuntz, as a justice of the peace of the county of Wood, are hereby legalized, and declared in all respects legal and binding, the same as if his official bond and oath of office had been filed as required by law.

May file bond.

SECTION 2. Said Abraham Kuntz is hereby authorized to file said bond and oath of office within sixty days after the passage of this act, and the same shall have the same force and effect as they would have had if filed at the time required by law.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 16, 1878.

[No. 467, A.]

[Published March 26, 1878.]

CHAPTER 224.

AN ACT to prevent the adulteration of milk in butter and cheese factories in this state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Unlawful to adulterate, and penalty for violation.

SECTION 1. Whoever shall knowingly sell, supply or bring to be manufactured, to any butter or cheese manufactory in this state, any milk diluted with water, or in any way adulterated, or whoever shall knowingly bring or supply milk, to any butter or cheese manufactory, that is tainted or partly sour, from want of proper care in keeping pails, strainers or any vessel in which said milk is kept clean and sweet, after being notified of such taint and carelessness; or any butter or cheese manufacturer who shall knowingly use or allow any of his employes or any other person to use for his or for their own individual benefit, any milk or cream from the milk brought to said butter or cheese manufacturer, without the consent of all the owners thereof; or any butter or cheese manufacturer who shall refuse or neglect to keep or cause to be kept a correct account (open to the inspection of any one furnishing milk to such manufacturer) of the amount of milk daily received, or of the number of pounds of butter and the number and aggregate weight of cheese made each day, or of the number cut or otherwise disposed of, and the weight of each, shall, for each and every offense, forfeit and pay a sum not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, to be sued for in any court of competent jurisdiction, one-half for the benefit of the person or persons, firm or association, or their assigns, upon whom such fraud or neglect shall be committed, first having made complaint therefor, the balance to the school fund.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 16, 1878.

[No. 418, A.]

[Published March 28, 1878.]

CHAPTER 225.

AN ACT to declare the true intent and meaning of chapter one hundred and forty-three, laws of Wisconsin for 1877, entitled "An act relating to the foreclosure of mortgages, and amendatory of chapter one hundred and forty-five of the revised statutes, entitled of actions for the foreclosure of mortgages, and the acts amendatory thereof."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is hereby declared to be the true intent and meaning of section nine of chapter one hundred and forty three of the laws of Wisconsin for 1877, entitled "An act relating to the foreclosure of mortgages, and amendatory of chapter one hundred and forty-five of the revised statutes, entitled of actions for the foreclosure of a mortgage, and the acts amendatory thereof," that the several acts therein referred to shall be and remain in full force and effect from and after the passage and publication of said act as to all judgments of foreclosure, and sheriffs' certificates of sale thereon, and the redemption and conveyance of the premises sold, entered or made previous to the passage and publication of said act. Construction of law.