CHAPTER 243.

AN ACT to amend section nine hundred and eleven of the revised statutes of 1878, in relation to the assessment and collection of poll taxes in villages incorporated under the general law.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That section nine hundred and eleven of the revised statutes of 1878, be and the same hereby is amended by inserting after the words "twenty-one," where they occur in the third line of section, the words, "and under the age of fifty," and by inserting after the word "warrant," where it occurs in the seventeenth line of said section, "provided, that the board of trustees may, by resolution, cause the said poll list to be placed in the hands of the street commissioner, to be collected in money or labor, and the said street commissioner shall have the same authority to collect and receipt for such tax as the treasurer, and shall account for such taxes by him collected in the same manner as for other moneys coming into his hands by virtue of his office," so that said section when amended, shall read as follows: Section 911. On or before the twentieth of May in each year, the clerk shall make out a list of the names of all male persons over the age of twenty-one and under the age of fifty years, with the amount of the poll tax, which shall be the same as in towns, set opposite to each person's name, and submit the same to the board of trustees for correction. When such list is correctly made out, and on or before the first day of June in each year, the board shall by order (to be signed by the president and clerk and annexed thereto), direct the same to be delivered forthwith to the treasurer for collection. The treasurer shall forthwith proceed to the collection of such tax and shall demand the same once of each person named in the list, and if any person neglects to pay the same for ten days thereafter then such treasurer shall, in the name of the village, sue for and collect such tax with fifty per centum damages on the same, with costs of suit, before the police justice of such village; and in default of payment of such judgment, execution shall issue against the defendant as in cases of tort; and the first process in such action shall be by civil warrant: provided, that the board of trustees may, by resolution, cause the said poll list to be placed in the hands of the street commissioner to be collected in money or labor, and the said street commissioner shall have the same authority to collect and receipt for such tax as the treasurer, and shall account for such taxes by him collected, in the same manner as for other moneys coming into his hands by virtue of his office. But the board of trustees may exempt from the payment of such tax all persons belonging to any fire company, or any person who is poor and not able-bodied, when they may deem it proper to do so, and the treasurer, while said list is in his hands for collection, may put upon the same the names of all such persons liable to such tax as may have been omitted therefrom, who shall then be liable, the same as if their names were originally placed in such list.

Treasurer to collect tax.

Board may exempt persons from payment of tax.

SECTION 2. This act shall be in force from and after its passage and publication.
