 [No. 2, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 4.

Agreeing to a proposed amendment to section 1, of article 10, of the constitution of the state of Wisconsin, relating to education.

WHEREAS, At the biennial session of the legislature of this state for the year 1885, an amendment to the constitution of this state was proposed and agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses, which proposed amendment was in the following language:

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring: That section 1, of article 10, of the constitution of the state of Wisconsin, be amended so as to read as follows:

SECTION 1. The supervision of common schools, shall be vested in a State Superintendent and such other officers as the legislature shall direct. The legislature may prescribe by law, the qualifications of the State Superintendent and all other officers intrusted with the supervision of common schools. The State Superintendent and such other officers intrusted with the supervision of common schools shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the state, or respective districts, at such time and in such manner as the legislature shall provide. The powers, duties and compensation for all such officers shall be provided for by law. Now, therefore,

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring: That the foregoing proposed amendment to the constitution of the state of Wisconsin be, and the same is hereby agreed to by this legislature.

[No. 19, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5.

Proposing an amendment to the constitution.

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring: That the following be adopted as an amendment to the constitution of the state of Wisconsin:

SECTION 1. The chief justice and associate justices of the supreme court shall be severally known as justices of said court with the same terms of office, respectively as now provided. The supreme court shall consist of five justices (any three of whom shall be a quorum), to be elected as now provided. The justice having been longest a continuous member of the court (or in case two or more of such senior justices having served for the same length of time, then the one whose commission first expires), shall be ex-officio the chief justice.
