CHAPTER 122.

AN ACT to amend chapter 292, of the general laws of 1881, relating to terms of court in the eighth judicial district.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

What may be tried at special terms in eighth judicial circuit.

SECTION 1. Chapter 292, of the general laws of 1881, is hereby amended by striking out in section 1 thereof the following words: "And excepting also the trial of issues of fact in actions made local by law and arising in some county other than the one in which such special term shall be held," so that said section 1, as amended shall be as follows: Every general term of the eighth judicial circuit, shall be a special term for the whole circuit. At any special term of said court, herein provided for, any and all business may be done arising in any county of the circuit which might be done at any general term, except the trial of issues of fact by a jury in cases other than those arising in actions of quo warranto and mandamus.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 21, 1889.
