CHAPTER 227.

AN ACT to amend chapter 192, of the laws of 1887, entitled, an act relating to evidence of title by descent.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amending ch. 192, laws 1887, title by descent, who may apply for certificate.

SECTION 1. Section 1, of chapter 192, of the laws of 1887, is hereby amended by inserting after the word, "person" where it occurs in the first line of said section 1, the words, "has died or," and by inserting after the word, "person" where it occurs in the fifth line of said section 1, the words, "the guardian of such heirs or any person interested in such real estate," so that said section 1, when so amended shall read as follows: Section 1. Whenever a person has died or shall die in this state owning real estate, the county judge of the county in which such real estate is situated may, upon application of the heirs of such deceased person, the guardian of such heirs or any person interested in such real estate, issue under the seal of the county court a certificate setting forth the names of the heirs of such deceased person and the interest of each of said heirs in the premises of which said deceased died seized, giving description of the same, which certificate when recorded in the office of the register of deeds in the county in which such real estate is situated, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein recited.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved April 1, 1889.
