CHAPTER 294.

AN ACT to amend sections 2426 and 2535, of the revised statutes, relating to circuit courts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2426 of the revised statutes of this state is hereby amended by adding thereto as follows: "The presiding judge of any circuit court may, in his discretion, by an order entered in the clerk's office before the jurors for any term of the circuit court are summoned, fix a time after the first day of the term, at which they shall appear before said court. In all cases where a time after the first day of the term shall be fixed by such judge for the appearance of the jurors, said court may, on the first day of the term proceed to the trial of the issues of fact to be tried by the court, and the issues of law on the calendar of such term." So that said section when amended shall read as follows: Section 2426. The presiding judge of any circuit may, by an order entered and recorded in the clerk's office, appoint one extra jury term of court to be holden in any county in his circuit, when he shall deem such term necessary to complete the jury trials in such county during any year, and may cause jurors therefor to be drawn and summoned as for other terms. At such term the same business may be transacted as at a regular term for such county. The presiding judge of any circuit court may, in his discretion, by an order entered in the clerk's office, before the jurors for any term of the circuit court are summoned, fix a time after the first day of the term, at which they shall appear before said court. In all cases where a time after the first day of the term shall be fixed by such judge for the appearance of the jurors, said court may on the first day of the term proceed to the trial of the issues of fact to be tried by the court, and the issues of law on the calendar of such term.

Amending section 2535, revised statutes.

SECTION 2. Section 2535, of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word, "thereof," in the sixth line of said section, the words, "or at such other time as may have been fixed by the presiding judge of said court," so that said section as amended shall read: "Section 2535. The clerk shall, at least twelve days before the first day of the court, issue and deliver to the sheriff or under-sheriff of said county, a venire for the petit jury, under the seal of the court, commanding him to summon the persons so drawn as jurors to appear before the said court, at or before the hour of eleven o'clock in the forenoon, on the first day of the term thereof, or at such other time as may have been fixed by the presiding judge of said court, to serve as petit jurors. And when ordered to draw a grand jury, as provided by law, he shall in like manner issue and deliver a venire, commanding the sheriff, or under-sheriff, to summon the persons so drawn as grand jurors to appear before the said court, at the time specified in the order of said judge.
