CHAPTER 262.

AN ACT to provide for the purchase of certain digests of Wisconsin reports.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Secretary of state to purchase 200 copies of Simmons' New Digest of Wisconsin Reports.

SECTION 1. The secretary of state is hereby authorized and directed to purchase, on behalf of the state, from James Simmons, Esq., of Walworth county, two hundred copies of Volume II of said Simmons' "New Digest of Wisconsin Reports," at six dollars per copy; provided, that said digest shall contain, in one volume, a complete digest of volumes sixty-two to seventy-six inclusive, of the official reports of the decisions of the Wisconsin supreme court, upon the same plan as the first volume, the said decisions to be referred to therein as published both in the said official reports, and in the volumes of the North Western Reporter, and shall also contain the usual indexes of subjects and of cases digested and criticised; and that said copies shall be of as good material, as well printed, and be bound in as good, substantial, law binding, as his previous volumes of Wisconsin Digests, and uniform therewith.

SECTION 2. The copies so purchased shall be delivered to the secretary of state, at Madison, within two months after the publication thereof shall be completed, and shall be by him distributed and disposed of in the same manner as is provided by law for the distribution of the reports of the supreme court.

How distributed.

SECTION 3. Upon receipt of said two hundred copies of said digest, of such materials, and so printed and bound, as provided in section 1 of this act, the account therefor, at the price aforesaid, shall be audited by the secretary of state, and paid by the state treasurer, on the warrant of said secretary of state, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

How paid for.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 16, 1891.
