

No. 783, A.]

[Published May 1, 1891.]

CHAPTER 285.

AN ACT to permit the erection of monuments in the capitol park.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Permission is hereby granted to the Monument may be erected. soldiers of the late war and to the citizens of Dane county, to erect, within two years from the passage of this act, and maintain in the capital square, in the city of Madison, as hereinafter provided, a suitable monument to commemorate the deeds and memory of the soldiers who enlisted from said county, and died or were killed in the service of the nation, in said war.

SECTION 2. The governor of the state is hereby Governor to supervise same. appointed a committee to whom shall be submitted the drafts and plans of said monument before the same is erected, and upon his approving the same, he shall designate a place in said park where said monument shall be erected, and shall himself, or by some person designated by him, see that such monument is erected in a safe and enduring condition.

SECTION 3. Said monument shall be made of Cost of monument. white bronze metal or some other equally durable substance satisfactory to said governor, and shall cost, when completed, not less than the sum of twenty thousand dollars.

SECTION 4. The state shall be to no expense in the construction, erection or maintenance of said monument, but the same shall be cared for, except as to the fountain hereinafter mentioned, by a committee of three citizens of said county to be appointed by said governor.

SECTION 5. A water fountain or other device Water fountain may be constructed in connection with said monument, subject to the approval of said governor, and water shall be furnished by the state to such fountain, if constructed, the same as to the one at present located in said capitol square.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 17, 1891.

No. 416, A.]

[Published May 1, 1891.

CHAPTER 286.

AN ACT to provide what shall be due proof of the service of notices and other papers authorized or required by law to be served.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amends section 4173, revised statutes 1878

Proof of service of notice, etc.

SECTION 1. The revised statutes of 1878, are hereby amended by adding after section 4173, a new section to be known as section "4173a," which shall read as follows: Section 4173a. Whenever any notice or other writing is by law authorized or required to be served, the affidavit of the person serving it, setting forth the facts necessary to show that it was duly served, shall be presumptive proof that such notice or writing was duly served. But this act shall not apply to any service where another way of proving service is expressly prescribed by law.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 17, 1891.