CHAPTER 3.

AN ACT relating to public printing and amendatory of section 344, of chapter 20, of the revised statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

The Milwaukee Journal made the official state paper.

SECTION 1. Section 344 of said chapter 20, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 344. The legislature shall declare some newspaper, published at Milwaukee, the official state paper, in which shall be officially published all the laws, advertisements, proclamations and communications of every nature, which may now or hereafter be required by law to be published in the official state paper. Any publication from either of the state departments in such paper shall be deemed official. Until a further designation is made, The Milwaukee Journal is declared to be the official state paper.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 5, 1891.
