CHAPTER 327.

AN ACT to amend chapter 521, laws of 1889, entitled, "An act to enable the qualified voters of any town, village or city within this state to determine by ballot whether any spirituous, malt or intoxicating liquors or drinks shall be sold therein as a beverage."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amends chapter 521, laws of 1889.

Local option.

SECTION 1. Amend section 3, of chapter 521, of the laws of 1889, by striking out the words, "and the mayor of such city (subject to confirmation of the common council or board of aldermen thereof)," so that said section 3, when so amended shall read as follows: Section 3. If a majority of the votes cast at such election upon the question submitted in any town, village or city be "for license," then it shall be lawful for the board of supervisors of such town, the village trustees or board of such village, or the common council or board of aldermen of such city, to grant license as provided in chapter 66, of the revised statutes, and chapter 296, of the laws of 1885; and provided, that no license shall be granted by any excise board of this state to any person who is a keeper or owner, directly or indirectly, of a house of ill-fame or house of prostitution.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 22, 1891.
