CHAPTER 412.

AN ACT granting to the United States jurisdiction over certain lands in Ashland county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

U. S. may purchase certain land in city of Ashland for public building.

SECTION 1. The consent of the state of Wisconsin is hereby given to the purchase, by the United States, of any tract or tracts of land in the city and county of Ashland, for the erection of a building under the provisions of an act of congress, approved May 22, 1890, entitled, "An act for a public building at Ashland, Ashland county, Wisconsin;" and the state hereby cedes to the United States, exclusive jurisdiction over such tract or tracts of land as shall be purchased for the purpose aforesaid, so long as they shall be or remain the owner thereof, for all purposes except the administration of the criminal laws of said state, and the service of civil process therein.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 23, 1891.
