CHAPTER 297.

AN ACT to appropriate to James E. Lounsbury the sum of money therein named.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Appropriation to James E.
Lounsbury.

SECTION 1. Whereas, James E. Lounsbury on the thirteenth day of April, 1874, bought from the state of Wisconsin the east one-half of the north-west quarter of section twelve, township twenty-six north, of range three east, in Marathon county, and paid the state therefor the sum of sixty dollars and fifty cents; and whereas, the title of the state to said land was afterwards declared void, and the said James E. Lounsbury had to, and did, repurchase the same from the original owner on November 9th, 1885: Now, therefore, there is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of ninety-one dollars and eighty-nine cents, in full satisfaction of his claim against the state on account of the failure of title to said land, which sum is the original purchase price with one per cent. interest thereon from November 9th, 1885, to April 9th, 1893.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 20, 1893.
