CHAPTER 234.

AN ACT to authorize Frank E. Cook to erect and maintain a dam on the middle branch of the Peshtigo river.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Authorized to construct a dam.

SECTION 1. Frank E. Cook, his heirs and assigns, are hereby authorized to construct and maintain a dam across the middle branch of the Peshtigo river in Forest county, Wisconsin, on sections twenty-eight and thirty-three of township thirty-seven, range thirteen east, for manufacturing and other purposes, and to erect and maintain such piers, booms and other improvements as may be necessary or convenient for holding, storing and arresting logs, timber or ties. Said dam, booms and piers shall be so constructed, maintained and operated as to obstruct as little as possible the free navigation of said river for log driving purposes.

Flowage rights.

SECTION 2. The said Frank E. Cook, his heirs and assigns, for the purpose of acquiring the land necessary for flowage rights to successfully carry out the provisions of this act, may exercise all the powers granted to corporations by section 1777, of the revised statutes, and the acts of the legislature amendatory thereto.

SECTION 3. The right to repeal or amend this act is hereby reserved.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 15, 1895.
