CHAPTER 22.

AN ACT fixing the amount of money to be kept on hand in the treasury of cities of the first class.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The city treasurer of all cities of the first class in this state, whether organized under general laws, or incorporated by special act of the legislature, may keep on hand in the treasury of said city, in addition to the amounts that may be deposited in bank, to the credit of said city, the sum of ten thousand dollars, and the treasurer and comptroller may, whenever the balance in the treasury does not amount to ten thousand dollars, increase it to that amount by their check upon any bank where the funds of said city may be deposited.

$10,000 may be kept on hand in the treasury of cities of the first class.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 10, 1897.
