CHAPTER 36.

AN ACT to amend section 4499 of the annotated statutes of Wisconsin, relating to false impersonation of county officers.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Impersonation
of county officers punishable by fine or imprisonment.

SECTION 1. Section 4499 of the annotated statutes of Wisconsin is hereby amended by striking out of said section the words "and require any person to aid or assist him in any manner pertaining to the duty of a justice of the peace, sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner, constable or notary," where the same appear therein, so that said section shall, when amended, read as follows, to-wit: Section 4499. Any person who shall falsely assume or pretend to be a justice of the peace, sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner, constable or notary and shall take upon himself to act as such shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year or by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars.

Approved March 23, 1899.
