CHAPTER 378.

AN ACT to appropriate to Wood county, one hundred and fifty-six dollars to reimburse that county for part of the expenses of sending Lena Roser, an inmate of the Marathon county asylum for the insane, to her relatives in Switzerland.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows

Proofs necessary, before payment of appropriation. SECTION 1.

There is hereby appropriated to Wood county out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of one hundred and fifty-six dollars, payable to the county treasurer of that county, on presentation to the secretary of state of satisfactory proof that said county has caused one Lena Roser, known also as Lena Rose, a chronic insane inmate of the Marathon county insane asylum, the cost of whose maintenance for the past ten years and more, has been chargeable to, and paid by the state and Wood county, to be delivered on board such vessel and to such person as may be designated by her relatives, to be transported to her relatives in Switzerland, who have requested that she be sent to them, and who have assumed the burden of her future care and support.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 13, 1901.
