CHAPTER 396.

AN ACT fixing the number of assessors in cities of the fourth class, incorporated by special act.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Power of council; procedure. SECTION 1. In all cities of the fourth class, incorporated by special act, the common council may, by an ordinance adopted for that purpose, by a three-fourths vote of all the members of the council elect, determine the number of assessors for said city. No such ordinance shall be introduced except at a regular meeting of the council and no action shall be taken thereon before the next regular meeting thereof nor until it shall be published at least once in each week for three successive weeks in the official city paper, if there be one and if there be none, in some newspaper published in the county where the city is located to be designated by the council, together with a notice of the time said ordinance will be considered.

Conflicting laws repealed. SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts and all provisions of city charters inconsistent with or contravening any of the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 13, 1901.
