CHAPTER 86.

AN ACT relating to felony and amendatory of section 4409 of chapter 182 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Penalty extended to twenty years. SECTION 1. Section 4409 of chapter 182 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, is hereby amended by striking out the word "five" where it occurs in the sixth line thereof and substituting therefor the words "twenty," so that when amended said section shall read as follows: Section 4409. Any person who shall break and enter in the nighttime any office, shop or warehouse or any other building, not adjoining or occupied with any dwelling house, or any ship, steamboat, vessel, railroad freight car or passenger car, with the intent to commit the crime of murder, rape, robbery, larceny or other felony shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than twenty years nor less than one year, provided that nothing herein shall be held to remit any penalty for offenses heretofore committed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 23, 1901.
