

to the person, regents, or medical colleges herein named, aggrieved, in the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered in an action.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 21, 1903.

No. 337, S.]

[Published May 27, 1903.

CHAPTER 407.

AN ACT relating to the terms of circuit judges.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Termination of terms. SECTION 1. The terms of the circuit judges now in office shall terminate respectively as follows:

The terms of Ellsworth Burnett Belden of the first circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1908.

The term of Lawrence W. Halsey of the second circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1906.

The term of Warren D. Tarrant of the second circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1906.

The term of George W. Burnell of the third circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1909.

The term of Michael Kirwan of the fourth circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1905.

The term of George Clementson of the fifth circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1907.

The term of John J. Fruit of the sixth circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1907.

The term of Charles M. Webb of the seventh circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1909.

The term of Eugene W. Helms of the eighth circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1909.

The term of E. Ray Stevens of the ninth circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of June, 1904, and the term of his successor shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1909.

The term of John Goodland of the tenth circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1910.

The term of Aad J. Vinje of the eleventh circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1907.

The term of Benjamin F. Dunwiddie of the twelfth circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1907.

The term of James J. Dick of the thirteenth circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1906.

The term of Samuel D. Hastings of the fourteenth circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1908.

The term of John K. Parish of the fifteenth circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1906.

The term of Willis C. Silverthorn of the sixteenth circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1910.

The term of James O'Neill of the seventeenth circuit shall terminate at midnight of the day preceding the first Monday of January, 1910.

All of said circuit judges shall hold their offices until their successors shall be elected and qualified.

Terms defined. SECTION 2. "The terms of office of circuit judges authorized to be chosen by section 7 of article VII of the constitution of the state of Wisconsin, as amended in 1897, shall be for a period of six years and until their respective successors shall be elected and qualified, when elected for a full term, and shall commence on the first Monday of January next succeeding their election and, when elected to fill a vacancy, shall commence on the first Monday of June next succeeding their election, and they shall hold for the residue of the term only and until their successors shall be elected and qualified, except as otherwise provided by chapter 2 of the laws of Wisconsin for the year 1903.”

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 21, 1903.

No. 211, S.]

[Published May 27, 1903.

CHAPTER 408.

AN ACT to amend section 21, statutes of 1898, as amended by section 1, chapter 96, laws of 1899, relating to notice of election by county clerk.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Notice of election, how published. SECTION 1. Section 21, statutes of 1898, as amended by section 1, chapter 96, laws of 1899, is amended by striking out the words “one newspaper published therein” in the fifth line of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof, the words “two newspapers published therein, one of which publications shall be made in a newspaper which advocates the principles of the political party that at the last preceding election cast the largest number of votes and the other publication shall be made in a newspaper which advocates the principles of the political party that then cast the next largest number of votes” so that said section, when so amended, shall read as follows: “Section 21. The county clerk thereupon shall forthwith cause a notice containing so much of the notice so received by him as relates to the questions and officers to be voted for in his county together with a statement of the several county officers to be elected by the voters of his county, to be published in at least two newspapers published therein, one of which publications shall be made in a newspaper which advocates the principles of the political party that at the last