CHAPTER 76.

AN ACT amendatory of section 2296 of the statutes of 1898, relating to certificate of proof and record.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Certificate of probate of will and of final judgment. SECTION 1. Section 2296 of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended so that said section when amended shall read as follows: Section 2296. Every will, when proved and allowed as prescribed in these statutes, shall have a certificate of such proof endorsed thereon or annexed thereto, signed by the judge of the county court and attested by the seal of such court. An attested copy of every will devising lands or any interest therein and of the probate thereof and of the final judgment in the estate assigning such lands or interest therein, shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the lands so devised and assigned are situated; provided however, that this act shall not apply to wills heretofore proved and allowed.

Conflicting laws repealed. SECTION 2. Any law or act conflicting or in any manner inconsistent with the provisions of this act is hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 6, 1903.
